

Please allow WRRS to continue serving the visually handicapped in our broadcast community by means of our existing supplemental audio channel and the free receiving sets we furnish to our clients.

More than a hundred volunteer readers, of which I am one, use the supplemental audio channel to bring news and commentary and general literature to the visually disadvantaged. Their responses indicate their appreciation.

James L. Linder